

SUMMARY

Introduction. . . . .	V
Bibliography. . . . .	IX
Summary . . . . .	XVII

CHAPTER I.

Alexander VI opposing heresy.

ARTICLE I. — Book censure.

Spiritual activity of Alexander VI ignored by history . . . . .	1
He asks prayers that he may govern the Church well. . . . .	2
His first cares were for spiritual interests. . . . .	3
Bull " in Coena Domini " against heresy and other crimes. . . . .	4
Text of the Book-censure of Alexander VI. . . . .	5
Alexander's example followed by Kings and Popes . . . . .	8
He carefully inquired into the doings of heretics . . . . .	9

ARTICLE II. — Alexander's policy towards the Marrani.

Peter de Aranda, bishop of Calahorra, a converted Jew. . . . .	9
Accused of forgery, apostasy and heresy. . . . .	10
His errors and crimes. . . . .	11
The Pope postpones the sentence. . . . .	16
de Aranda degraded and incarcerated for life. . . . .	16
Was he condemned for the sake of his money ? . . . . .	17
His son escaped prosecution by resigning his dignities. . . . .	17
The Jews expelled from Spain. . . . .	17
The Spanish inquisition moderated by Alexander VI. . . . .	18
The Pope defends archbishop de Talavera against the Spanish inquisition. . . . .	19
Convicted Marrani's abuse of the Pope's mercy. . . . .	20
Slander of Prescott and of Pastor. . . . .	21
Leniency towards the Marrani in the Pontifical States. . . . .	22
Slanderous remarks of Sanudo and of Soderini. . . . .	25
Alexander clears Pico de Mirandola of the suspicion of heresy. . . . .	26

ARTICLE III. — Alexander's acts in regard to the heretics of Bohemia.

Severity embitters, kindness allays heretical hatred. . . . .	27
Influence of king Ladislas. Prague sends envoys to Rome. . . . .	28
Papal legate to Hungary and Bohemia. . . . .	29
Privileges granted to the diocese of Prague. . . . .	30
Many conversions, but Picardists more fanatical. . . . .	31
Diabolism of the Waldesian " Fossarii ". . . . .	31
Alexander VI sends learned preachers to them. . . . .	32
He prohibits magic in Lombardy. . . . .	33

ARTICLE IV. — Alexander's activity in Lithuania.

Schismatic Moscovites fall upon the diocese of Abo. . . . .	34
The duke of Lithuania secures peace by accepting for wife the schismatic daughter of the duke of Moscow. . . . .	35
The Pope promotes conversions to Church unity. . . . .	36
Approves the form of baptism of United Greeks. . . . .	37
The Pope answers to the bishop of Wilna a letter from a Greek metropolitan. . . . .	39
He writes on the same subject to the duke of Lithuania. . . . .	42
The metropolitan joins the Greek United Church. . . . .	45
The duke of Lithuania asks the Pope's advice regarding his proselytizing schismatic wife. . . . .	46
The Pope prescribes separation, but sets no time. . . . .	47
The separation remained a threat. . . . .	48
Alexander answers to Constantine, king of Georgia, who desires union with the Roman Church. . . . .	48
The Pope helps the Bosnians to keep the faith. . . . .	49

CHAPTER II.

Propagation of the faith.

ARTICLE I. — In Greenland, Congo and Granada.

When yet a cardinal, Alexander proposes Canutson as bishop of long-lost Greenland. . . . .	52
When a Pope, he orders his bulls to be given him free. . . . .	52
Alexander supplies newly converted Congo with missionaries. . . . .	52
The Pope establishes the ecclesiastical province of Granada. . . . .	53

He aids the archbishop de Talavera and clergy. . . . .	54
Means to build churches supplied by the Pope. . . . .	55
Friendly discussions and presents conciliate the Moriscos. . . . .	56
Riots in Granada and revolt in the mountains subdued. . . . .	57
The Pope encourages expeditions into Africa. . . . .	57

ARTICLE II. — In the newly discovered West Indies.

The Pope secured Columbus' discoveries to Spain. . . . .	60
Imposes the duty of trying to convert the natives. . . . .	61
Alexander draws the line between Spain and Portugal. . . . .	61
Portugal objects and the Pope issues his fifth bull of extension. . . . .	63
Treaty of Tordesillas. . . . .	64
The Pope's aim was the conversion of the natives. . . . .	64
Was there any priest with Columbus on his first voyage? . . . . .	65
Bernard Boyl, a Minim, superior of the first missionaries. . . . .	67
Faculties for the clergymen and the people. . . . .	69
Indian interpreters. . . . .	71
Names of first missionaries of America. . . . .	71
Mistakes about de Arenas and Las Casas. . . . .	73
Church paraphernalia and other articles procured to the missionaries by the Catholic Kings. . . . .	74
Quarrel of Columbus and Boyl, who returns to Spain. . . . .	75
Second, third and fourth bands of missionaries. . . . .	75
Conversions scarce at first, numerous afterwards. . . . .	76
Alexander VI prepares for a Hierarchy in the West Indies. . . . .	76

ARTICLE III. — Fault found with the Pope for " donating " the West Indies.

Did the Pope give one half of the world to Spain, and the other half to Portugal? . . . . .	78
The grant was simply a confirmation of title. . . . .	79
Legal possession was the title. Marmontel's error. . . . .	82
The Popes gives with " apostolic power ", because he was requested as Sovereign Pontiff. . . . .	83
The Pope did not reduce the Indians to slavery. . . . .	83
Grounds of Spanish dominion. . . . .	83

ARTICLE IV. — Propagation of faith in Portuguese possessions.

In lands of Infidels to be acquired by Emanuel, king of Portugal. . . . .	84
First Mass in Brazil. . . . .	84
Missions in East India. . . . .	85

CHAPTER III.

Reform of the Church.

ARTICLE I. — Necessity of Reform.

Negligence of German bishops. . . . .	87
The Roman Court needed reform, yet counted many exemplary prelates. . . . .	88
Pagan writers and pious people in Italy. . . . .	88
Reform of the Curia accomplished in part. . . . .	89
Alexander VI the greatest reformer of the period. . . . .	90
He at once orders reforms in England. . . . .	91
Soon after he reforms the Franciscan Conventuals. . . . .	92

ARTICLE II. — Reform of the Roman Court.

Regulations regarding cardinals. . . . .	93
Duties of apostolic notaries, "Taxatores" to be let free, Judges not to accept presents. . . . .	94
Severe penalty for injury to a contestant at law. . . . .	95
Regulations for the Penitentiaries. . . . .	96
Revision of rules of the treasury of the Sacred College. . . . .	97
Abuses in spite of pope Alexander VI. . . . .	97
The Pope's Vicar General to reform the diocese of Rome. . . . .	98

ARTICLE III. — General means of reform.

Alexander favors synods and councils, orders general chapters of Regulars. . . . .	99
A council for the reform of Ireland. . . . .	99
Councils and synods at the time. . . . .	100
Papal nuncios and legates as reformers. . . . .	104
Cardinal Pérault to reform Germany. . . . .	105
Cardinal d'Amboise, reformer in France. . . . .	106
Reform commission for Spain. . . . .	107
Religious prelates of the archduchy of Austria made inquisitors and reformers of monasteries. . . . .	108

ARTICLE IV. — Special deputies for particular reforms.

Reform in the monastery of Cuxan, in Spain. . . . .	109
Berthold, abbot of Adelberg, to reform a collegiate church. . . . .	109
Wm. de Heyck to reform the monastery of Etal. . . . .	109
Pietro Delphino reformer of the Camaldalese of Florence. . . . .	109
Ludovico Turriano ordered to expel incorrigibles. . . . .	110
The patriarch of Venice to reform convents. . . . .	110

ARTICLE V. — Papal reform bulls and briefs.

Against Observantines leaving their house of profession. . . . .	112
Against Conventuals admitting Observantines. . . . .	114
Allowing the Brothers of St. Paul the Hermit to join the Carthusians only. . . . .	115
Bull for the reform of German convents. . . . .	115
Efforts to correct Savonarola. . . . .	115
Reform of the Benedictines of Cavo. . . . .	117
A pseudo reformer of the Franciscans of Tivoli. . . . .	117
"Brothers of the Poor Life" regulated. . . . .	118
The Pope unites and disunites Cistercian provinces. . . . .	119
He threateningly commands the Franciscan general chapter to reform their friars of Assisi. . . . .	119
The "Alexandrine reforms" of the Franciscans. . . . .	120
Reform of the convent of Assisi. . . . .	120
The Minister General stripped of his faculties over the Observantines. . . . .	121
The Pope reforms and transforms several convents in Italy. . . . .	121

ARTICLE VI. — Reform in Spain.

Reform of the Conventuals of St. Facundo. . . . .	124
Reform of the Benedictine abbey of Montserrat. . . . .	125
Ximenez reformer of the Franciscans in Spain. . . . .	125
Cardinal de Costa and the Minister General of the Franciscans oppose Ximenez. . . . .	127
Papal brief to stop reforms by Ximenez. . . . .	127
Better informed, the Pope appoints Ximenez as papal reformer. . . . .	129
Emigration of Franciscans to the Moors of Africa. . . . .	129
Reform and improvements of Spanish convents. . . . .	130
The secular clergy generally poor and good. . . . .	131
Bull for the reform of the Universities of Spain. . . . .	133
Alexander VI fosters peace between the secular and the regular clergy. . . . .	133

ARTICLE VII. — Reform in Portugal.

Abolition of the vow of Chastity in two Military Orders. . . . .	134
Simple clerics without tonsure deprived of immunity. . . . .	135
The Pope orders canonical visitation of all churches. . . . .	135
Special duties imposed on suffragan bishops. . . . .	136
Reform of the Poor Clares of Lisbon. . . . .	137
The Pope suppresses four convents of Oporto, and replaces them by one for Clarisses. . . . .	137
Allows to nuns their wish of a stricter rule. . . . .	139

ARTICLE VIII. — Reform in France.

The Pope decides a lawsuit in favor of the Observantines.	139
Reform of the Conventuals in the duchy of Bourbonnais.	139
The Pope protects Conventuals of good will.	141
Rules strictly observed in most convents.	142
A convent of Arc changed into a priory of Observantines.	143
A litigating bishop of St. Pauli Trois Châteaux.	144
The clergy of Vesprim awarded their dues.	144

ARTICLE IX. — Reform in Germany.

The abbey of Vixtring given to the Knights of St. George.	145
The community of Egmund rejuvenated.	145
Provincial of reformed Dominicans sustained.	146
Reform of the Augustinians in Windserheim.	147
The Conventuals of Marburg are dismissed.	147
The Conventuals of Fritzlar, ejected, resort to violence.	148
The Conventuals of Leipzig replaced by Observantines.	149
Several more monasteries reformed.	149
The Pope takes care of several convents.	150

ARTICLE X. — Reform in England and Ireland.

Benedictine monasteries subjected directly to Rome.	151
English Conventuals reformed.	152
Conventuals of Knocfergus and Athskettin reformed.	153

CHAPTER IV.

Alexander VI favoring dutiful religious.

Reforms, one cause of slandering Alexander VI.	155
Exemption of the Benedictine Sisters of O. L. "de Vegas".	156
The Pope establishes the Reformed Congregation of Dominicans in France.	156
Exempts the Cistercians from tithes.	156
Gives to the Augustinians the sacristy of the papal chapel.	156
Unites the monasteries of St. Justina and of Monte Cassino Congregations.	157
Grants great privileges to the Observantines.	158
Exempts from all taxes all Franciscan convents.	158
Fosters the propagation of faithful religious houses.	159
Good example and preaching, aims of the extension.	163

Alexander VI confirms the "Apostlebrothers of Poor Life".	165
Approves the Military Order of St. Michael.	166
Establishes the Order of Minims.	166
Establishes the Third Order of St. Francis de Paula.	167
Institution of the Congregation of the Annuntiation of the Blessed Virgin.	167
Commencement of St. Magdalen institutions.	168

CHAPTER V.

Attempt at universal reform.

Murder of the duke of Gandia.	171
The Pope appoints a reform commission of six cardinals.	171
He co-operates with the commission.	172
Their extensive preparatory labors are preserved.	173
Projects regarding the Pope and the Palace.	174
Projects regarding the cardinals.	177
Projects regarding officials of the Roman Curia.	178
Projects regarding general reform.	178
A programme for the Council of Trent.	181
Introduction to the reform bull.	181
The bull was not issued. False reasons why not.	184
Not a bull, but a Council found by the Commission to be needed for success.	185
Circumstances did not allow the holding of a council.	186

CHAPTER VI.

Defence of ecclesiastical rights.

Danger of national churches. Charles the Bold.	189
King John and grandees of Denmark, partition among themselves, the fattest church dignities.	190
Papal rebuke of John de Honthem, the chancellor of Brabant.	190
Admonition to the grand chancellor of Austria.	191
Orders to de Honthem's assessors.	192
Warning to the Nobility and Citizens of Brabant.	192
Blame of, and special orders to, the bishop of Liege.	193
Likewise to the abbots of Parc and Affligem.	193
Warning to archduke Maximilian.	194
Requests archduke Philip to uphold church authority.	194
Writes similar letters to four other princes.	195
Alleged answers of archduke Philip to the Pope.	197
Complaints of the duke of Wylack and protection of the archbishop of Colotza.	197
Names judges of clerics plotting against the kings of Spain.	198

Grants tithes to the Spanish kings for the benefit of religion in Granada, America and Africa. . . . .	199
Refuses to the duke of Ferrara a miter for his son. . . . .	201
The duke of Lithuania must let the bishop of Wilna confer the benefices of his diocese. . . . .	202
The Pope allows the use of the sword to the bishop of Wilna. . . . .	202
Confers dignities in spite of Venice. . . . .	203
Avarice and pretensions of Venice irritate the Pope. . . . .	204
The Pope refuses a diocese to cardinal Cornaro. . . . .	205
Other benefices claimed in vain by Venice. . . . .	205
The Pope tries to abrogate the Pragmatic Sanction. . . . .	207
Preserves clerical immunity in the duchy of Milan. . . . .	207
The consistory grants moneys to emperor Maximilian, but not the recall of cardinal Pérault. . . . .	208
Alexander VI protects the lower clergy. . . . .	208

CHAPTER VII.

Savonarola.

ARTICLE I. — Successes of Savonarola.

Savonarola becomes a Dominican novice. . . . .	211
Becomes master of novices and commences to preach. . . . .	212
He greatly improves Florence. . . . .	213
Elected Prior, he introduces strict observance. . . . .	213
San Marco is separated from the province of Lombardy. . . . .	214
Dominican houses added to San Marco. . . . .	215
The Pope orders Savonarola to preach in Florence. . . . .	216
A prophet, Savonarola converses with the Bl. V. Mary. . . . .	217
He prophesies the incursion of the French into Italy. . . . .	218
His prophecies on Florence and Rome proven false. . . . .	219
His promise of the conversion of the Turks. . . . .	219
Savonarola at first successful in politics. . . . .	220

ARTICLE II. — Savonarola disobedient to the Pope.

Opposition to Savonarola. . . . .	220
The preacher denounced in Rome is forbidden to preach. . . . .	221
He shamefully assails the Roman court. . . . .	222
The Pope orders him to come to Rome. . . . .	224
Savonarola's reasons for postponing indefinitely. . . . .	225
Third papal brief exposes the errors of the Friar. . . . .	226
San Marco re-united to the province of Lombardy, Savonarola to be judged by Seb. Maggi, and forbidden to preach. . . . .	228

The Friar defends his doctrines, refuses obedience. . . . .	228
Friendly brief ordering Savonarola to Rome and forbidding him to preach, but revoking former orders. . . . .	231
Father Lucas protects Savonarola by indicting the Pope. . . . .	233
Savonarola ceases preaching, replaced by Dominic da Pescia. . . . .	234
People opposed to him, the Seignior intercedes for him. . . . .	234
Invited by the Seignior, he preaches again. . . . .	234
Alexander VI is no Pope, he says, and violently slanders Rome. . . . .	235
The Seignior asks the Pope to approve their schismatic action. . . . .	237
The Pope refuses, but tolerates for fear of schism. . . . .	238
Savonarola condemned by a Dominican conference. . . . .	238
Was Savonarola offered a cardinal's hat? . . . . .	238
Misery of Florence in spite of Savonarola's prophecies. . . . .	240
Savonarola exclusively allowed by the Seignior to preach. . . . .	240
The Pope establishes the Tusco-Roman province, and joins San Marco with it. . . . .	241
Savonarola refuses to unite with the new province. . . . .	243
He dares the Pope and slanders his court. . . . .	244
He takes pains to make good his main prophecy. . . . .	245
He loses authority in Florence. . . . .	245
The friars of San Marco formally refuse to unite with the new province. . . . .	246

CHAPTER VIII.

Savonarola excommunicated.

ARTICLE I. — Savonarola calls the censure invalid ; the Seignior defends him.

The Pope waits for an occasion to excommunicate him. . . . .	249
Tumult at Savonarola's sermon in the cathedral. . . . .	250
His exile is put to vote. . . . .	251
Savonarola is excommunicated. . . . .	251
Savonarola's encyclical against the censure. . . . .	253
His letter on the occasion of Giovanni de Borgia's murder, to rebuke the Pope and defend himself. . . . .	255
Florentine officials write to Rome to defend the Friar. . . . .	256
The Pope submits the case to the Commission of Reform. . . . .	256
A new Seignior intercedes for Savonarola. . . . .	257
The friars of San Marco intercede for him. . . . .	257
The Pope fearlessly upholds ecclesiastical authority. . . . .	258
A new epidemic, etc. further destroy faith in Savonarola's prophecies. . . . .	258

ARTICLE II. — Savonarola rebels publicly, protected by schismatic magistrates.

The Friar violates the censure and the Seigniory requests abso- lution for him.	260
Savonarola writes to the Pope an humble letter but does not yield.	260
Savonarola publicly celebrates.	261
The Seigniory requests him to preach in the cathedral.	262
Savonarola calls the Pope " a broken tool " .	263
He promises to perform miracles.	264
Lecturing to clergymen he grows wild against the Pope.	264
" A Pope can err, but the Friar is infallible " .	265
Savonarola's daring impiety.	266
The Pope threatens Florence with Interdict.	267
Violence and impure language of Savonarola.	269
A Seigniory hostile to him is elected.	269
Forbidden the cathedral pulpit, he grows wild in San Marco against the Pope.	269
The Pope with no sinister intention orders him sent to Rome.	270
A " Pratica " of magistrates refuses to send him.	270
New threat of an Interdict.	271
Another " Pratica " forbids the Friar to preach, but keeps him in Florence.	275
Fierce letter of the Friar to the Pope.	276

ARTICLE III. — Savonarola preparing a Council against Alexander VI.

Threat of a council, in spite of another censure.	277
Savonarola's erroneous ideas of a Council.	278
He drafts letters to Princes, to have them convoke a general Council.	279
His letter to France intercepted and reported to the Pope.	279
Contents of his letters to the princes.	279
The Pope, satisfied with the silencing of Savonarola, promised to let him preach after some time.	281

CHAPTER IX.

End of Savonarola.

ARTICLE I. — The ordeal of fire. — Attack on San Marco.

Francesco di Puglia challenges Savonarola to the ordeal of fire.	283
Dominic da Pescia and Giuliano Rondinelli to take their place.	284
The Seigniory directs the ordeal.	284

The Pope condemns the ordeal of fire.	285
The ordeal, an occasion of dissension, is a failure.	285
Mariano Ughi prevented from preaching at the Cathedral.	287
San Marco's church and monastery assailed and defended.	287

ARTICLE II. — Savonarola arrested and condemned.

Savonarola arrested with two companions.	287
The Seigniory asks permission to examine the Friar, and general absolution of all censures.	288
The Pope requires ecclesiastical associate judges and that the Friar be delivered to him.	289
Savonarola examined, tortured and condemned.	290
The friars of San Marco undeceived ask pardon and the con- tinuance of their own province.	291
The Pope grants them pardon, but requires their union with the Tusco-Roman province.	292
A " Pratica " decides not to send the Friar to Rome, and asks papal commissaries.	292
Francis Remolino and Gioachim Turriano, Master General of the Dominicans, are sent.	294
They examine Savonarola and report to the Pope.	295
Remolino slandered and vindicated, Turriano praised.	295
Savonarola delivered by them to the civil power.	298
The last hours of the doomed friars were edifying.	299

ARTICLE III. — General remarks about Savonarola.

Does the Church and the World owe him a debt of gratitude?	299
Was he a precursor of Protestantism?	300
Was he a self-deluded monomaniac?	301
Many Dominicans condemn all their superiors and confreres of that time to defend Savonarola.	302
Praises of St. Francis de Paula and veneration of three other saints for Savonarola.	302
" Savonarola " on pope Benedict XIV's catalogue of persons worthy of canonization?	303
Savonarola died a defeated politician.	304

CHAPTER X.

Alexander VI and Matrimony.

ARTICLE I. — Marriage case of Ladislas, king of Hungary.

Alexander VI grants matrimonial dispensations.	307
He sustains the marriage of the duke of Lithuania.	309

Ladislás of Hungary married to a German lady. . . . .	310
Ladislás promises marriage to Beatrix of Naples and rejects her. . . . .	311
The Pope sends a legate to Hungary to inquire. . . . .	311
He opposes Ladislás's wishes to marry the sister of cardinal Sforza. . . . .	312
Ladislás and Beatrix had each a defender in Rome. . . . .	312
Efforts of Ferdinand of Naples in favor of Beatrix. . . . .	313
The Pope allows Beatrix to bring her case before the Roman tribunal. . . . .	314
Ladislás's letter to have the case decided. . . . .	315
The Pope decides the marriage to be null and void. . . . .	315
Ladislás's first marriage dissolved. . . . .	316

ARTICLE II. — Divorce and new marriage of Louis XII, king of France.

The Pope accused of simony on this occasion. . . . .	317
Divorce and dispensation bargained for favors to Cesar de Borgia? . . . . .	317
Bargain for money denied. . . . .	318
The case of Louis XII's marriage. . . . .	319
Commission to inquire into that marriage. . . . .	320
The divorce lawsuit. . . . .	321
The sentence: The marriage was null and void. . . . .	322
Dispensation to marry Anna of Brittany granted. . . . .	323
Untruths of Machiavelli on this occasion. . . . .	324
Marriage of Louis XII and Anna of Brittany. . . . .	326
The Pope dissolves the marriage of John Corvinus. . . . .	326
The Pope dispenses no nun to marry. . . . .	327

CHAPTER XI.

Alexander VI promoting piety.

ARTICLE I. — Towards the Blessed Sacrament and the Blessed Virgin.

Promotes piety towards the Blessed Sacrament. . . . .	329
Towards the Blessed Virgin Mary. . . . .	331
He grants indulgences to the visitors of her shrines. . . . .	334
The Pope institutes the feast of the Apparition of Christ arisen to his Mother, and of the Presentation of the child Mary in the temple. . . . .	335
He renews the pilgrimage of the Blessed Virgin in Rhodes. . . . .	335
Encourages the recitation of the Holy Rosary. . . . .	336
He was the Originator of the " Angelus ". . . . .	336

ARTICLE II. — Alexander VI and the Immaculate Conception.

Sixtus IV favors the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception. . . . .	338
Under Alexander VI controversies were renewed, but the doctrine was admitted by Universities. . . . .	339
Alexander VI institutes and approves Confraternities of the Conception of the Blessed Virgin. . . . .	340
Scandalous discussions prohibited by threats of Alexander VI. . . . .	341
Alexander VI forbids the contestants to speak on the subject before lay people. . . . .	342

ARTICLE III. — Saints, H. Relics, Houses of God.

Alexander VI promotes the veneration of Saints. . . . .	343
Fosters the veneration of H. Relics. . . . .	345
Alexander blamed for not canonizing saints. . . . .	347
He was active in preparing later canonizations. . . . .	348
He encourages the restoration of Houses of Worship. . . . .	349
To him nothing was small in matters religious. . . . .	354

CHAPTER XII.

Alexander VI promotes charity towards the needy.

Usury. The Pope favors the " Monts de piété ". . . . .	357
He encourages the redemption of captives. . . . .	358
Erects or assists the Hospices of Ancona, Venice, Compostella, Orvieto, Toledo, Lisbon, Toledo again, Santa Maria Maggiore, Windsor, Genoa, Obidos, Pavia, Gandia, and Valencia in France, and he institutes Confraternities to take care of the sick. . . . .	360
He encourages the building of a hospital anywhere in Spain. . . . .	364
He places smaller hospitals under the direction of the larger. . . . .	364
He encourages the faithful to help the hospital of Rouen. . . . .	365
He assists the Poor Souls in Purgatory. . . . .	365

CHAPTER XIII.

Jubilee of the year 1500.

ARTICLE I. — The Jubilee in Rome.

The Jubilee of the year 1500 in Rome. . . . .	367
History of the Jubilees. . . . .	368
The Pope suspends all plenary indulgences and special faculties. . . . .	368

Announces the Roman jubilee.	368
Immediate preparations and solemn publication.	369
Conditions to gain the indulgences and exceptions.	370
The jubilee applicable to the souls in purgatory.	371
Faculties given to St. Peter's Penitentiaries.	371
Opening and closing of the Golden Door.	372
Dispensation in the number of pious visits.	373
The Pope observes the jubilee conditions.	373
The penitentiaries can lessen the number of visits.	375
The Pope attends to the safety of the pilgrims.	375
Ludovico, duke of Milan, murders French pilgrims.	376
The Pope punishes robbers of pilgrims in Rome, and expels the Corsicans from the Pontifical States.	377
The Pope repairs public roads for the pilgrims.	378
Great number of pilgrims in Rome.	378
Regular processions to the Basilicas.	381

ARTICLE II. — Extensions of the Jubilee.

Extensions of the Roman jubilee.	382
Extension to the kingdoms of Hungary and of Poland.	382
To the City and diocese of Faenza and to Gandia.	383
To the principality of Valachia, to Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Friesland, Prussia.	383
To France.	384
To all Italy and the Cisalpine Franciscan Vicariate.	385
To the diocese of Posen.	385
To Venice and its ultramarine possessions.	386
To Rhodes and other islands of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.	386
To the Archduchy of Austria.	386
To Belgium and the dioceses of Cambrai, Tournay and Besançon.	386
To the Duchy of Lorraine and Bar.	387
To the island of Corsica.	387
To Portugal.	387

ARTICLE III. — Jubilee moneys.

Jubilee moneys destined to war against the Turks.	388
Germany doubts the honesty of the Pope.	389
Pastor denies the Pope's integrity.	390
The Pope leaves the moneys to the emperor, for war against the Turks.	390
Maximilian accepts the moneys, but undertakes no war.	390
Donations in Rome spent on St. Peter's, etc.	391
Jubilee moneys received only in part and late.	392
Moneys spent against the Turks.	392
Cesar de Borgia paid with ordinary revenues.	393

CHAPTER XIV.

Pope Alexander VI and the Sacred College.

ARTICLE I. — Creation of Cardinals.

The cardinals, advisers of the Pope.	395
The cardinals created by Alexander VI form a body of eminent, good men.	395
A cardinal promoted August 31 st , 1492.	396
Twelve cardinals created September 20 th , 1493.	396
Aloysius de Aragonia created "in petto".	399
Was a bishop of Ceuta made a cardinal?	399
Wm. Briçonnet, created cardinal January 16 th , 1495.	400
Philip of Luxembourg, promoted January 21 st , 1495.	400
Four Spanish cardinals, made February 19 th , 1496.	401
George d'Amboise promoted September 12 th , 1498.	402
Was the Servite Father John made a cardinal?	402
Three cardinals, created the 16 th or 20 th of March, 1500.	402
Ten cardinals, created September 28 th , 1500.	403
Was a cardinal named in petto, in 1501?	405
Nine more cardinals, made May 31 st , 1503.	405
Princely recommendations for the cardinalate ignored.	407

ARTICLE II. — Rebellion of cardinal Giuliano della Rovere.

Friendly relations between the cardinals and the Pope.	407
Giuliano della Rovere antagonizes the Pontiff from the beginning of his reign.	408
Alexander VI asks the cardinals how to reconcile Giuliano.	410
A misrepresentation by Marin Sanudo.	411
Giuliano visits the Pontiff.	413
Death of Ferdinand of Naples and accession of Alfonso.	413
Alfonso of Naples protects Giuliano who sides with his enemy.	413
Giuliano confides Ostia to the Colonna and leaves for France.	414
The Pope captures Ostia.	415
The Colonna recapture Ostia and assail Rome.	415
Giuliano incites Charles VIII to war against Alfonso of Naples and the Pope.	416
Giuliano advises the convocation of a conciliabulum.	417
Talk about the deposition of the Pope.	417
King Charles VIII defeats Giuliano della Rovere's plans.	419

ARTICLE III. — Rebellion of cardinals Sforza, Colonna Savelli and Pérault.

Cardinal Ascanio Sforza disloyal to the Pope.	420
Cardinals Colonna and Savelli leave Rome.	421
Ascanio Sforza follows them.	422
Ascanio excused from returning to Rome.	422
Cardinals Colonna, Savelli and Sforza excommunicated.	422
Ascanio visits the Pope, Cesar de Borgia his hostage.	423
Ascanio and others arrested in Rome.	424
The Pope had given him no security.	425
Why this arrest? Was attempted murder the cause?	426
The Sacred College vows fidelity to the Pontiff.	428
The prisoners are liberated.	428
Cardinal Pérault, esteemed by the Pope.	429
Pérault deceived by Charles VIII's announcement of a crusade and by the Pope's forged letters to Bajazet.	430

ARTICLE IV. — Charles VIII in Rome.

Charles VIII enters Rome with the rebel cardinals.	431
The Pope accused of trifles before the King.	432
Charles VIII concludes a treaty with the Pope.	432
He makes act of obeisance to Alexander VI as to the true Vicar of Christ.	433
Giuliano della Rovere irritated, Ascanio Sforza flees.	434
The rebel cardinals follow Charles VIII to Naples.	434

ARTICLE V. — Cardinals Pérault and Sforza reconciled.

Cardinal Pérault is said to have insulted the Pope at the time of his pardon and reconciliation.	435
Pérault is finally undeceived.	436
The Pope greatly favors him.	436
Cardinal Sforza follows his brother again in his change of politics, and asks the Pope's pardon.	438
The bull of Ascanio Sforza's reinstatement.	438
The Pope bestows many favors upon him.	440
Ascanio, helpful to the Pope.	441
When suspected in Rome, he goes to the Colonna.	442

ARTICLE VI. — Cardinal Sforza, a captive; what the Pope did for him.

Cardinals Sforza and Sanseverino did not flee from Rome in the year 1498.	442
Conquest of Milan and fate of Ascanio Sforza.	443
The Pope sends an envoy to Venice for his liberation.	445
The Pope consoles and encourages the captive.	446
Venice absolved from the censures incurred by the cardinal's detention.	446
The Pope obtains Ascanio's freedom all over France.	447
Misrepresentations of ambassador Giustinian.	447
The Pope appoints lieutenants for vicechancellor Ascanio.	448
He increases his privileges, and allows him to collect his yearly income two years in advance.	448

ARTICLE VII. — Reinstatement of cardinal and the nobles Colonna and of cardinal Savelli.

The Pope reinstates the cardinals Colonna and Savelli and their relatives.	449
The two cardinals return to Rome a year later.	451

ARTICLE VIII. — Reinstatement and later reconciliation of cardinal Giuliano della Rovere.

Charles VIII demanded the reinstatement of Giuliano and of his brother.	452
Bull of restoration of both della Rovere.	452
A cruel pirate, governor of the fortress of Ostia.	455
The Pope retracts the bull of Giuliano's reinstatement.	455
Consalvo recaptures Ostia for the Pope.	456
Giuliano requests an understanding with the Pope.	456
Agreement confirmed by the Pope.	458
Giuliano in Rome, friendly in France.	458
Closer union between the Borgias and the Rovere.	459
Magnanimity of the Pope towards Giuliano.	459